On this date the writer contacted Special Agent Eric Flagg with the A.T.F. (alcohol, tobacco and firearms) in reference to Dustin Stanley. Agent Flagg stated that he was introduced to Dustin by Lt. J. Thomas of the Shenandoah County Sheriff's Office. He started talking with Dustin and he gave some information that was possibly useful and was willing to work but he needed to be out of jail. Agent Flagg stated that he spoke with the Judge and arranged for his release. Upon being released from jail Agent Flagg signed him up as a confidential informant. He stated that Dustin was working a person in Northern Rockingham County and Luray and that he also made a buy for the Agent. Agent Flagg stated that Dustin then started working as a mason and he told him that he didn't want to interfere with his job so they just stayed in touch. Did you ever pay him for work? He stated that Dustin was not paid directly but $100.00 was paid to DCSE for owned child support. Agent Flagg stated that sometime in the spring or early summer Dustin called him all pissed off. He stated that Dustin thought he put a tape recorder in his vehicle. Agent Flagg stated that he told Dustin he didn't do that and that Dustin called back a little later saying that he found out it was his girlfriend that did it.

Agent Flagg stated that Dustin NEVER said one bad word about his girlfriend and that he was surprised when the incident happened.
